Linda Champagney explained that the Savers Fundraiser will collect used clothing on October 1 at the Babb's skating rink between 9 a.m. and 12 noon. What is collected will be sold in bulk.

Jerry Crane discussed plans for selling donated items such as books, records, jewelry and electronics on CraigsList, eBay or other venues to benefit either CRC or Babbs at the option of the donor. He also discussed plans for "Memories and Memorabilia" to be shared at a future event.

Rob Tatro explained that a horseshoe tournament will be held on October 15. A maximum of 50 people (25 teams) will be able to participate.

Deb noted that elections will be held at the October meeting for President, Vice-President and Secretary and encouraged anyone interested to run for office.

Ron Greene explained that the regatta originally planned for this fall will be held next spring and noted that he was successful in obtaining the necessary permits.

Questions were asked about events planned for next year at Babb's and how to best be kept informed, and well as what fees might be charged at Babb's beach. Wendy explained that Suffield is currently working on the fee schedule.

Next Membership Meeting

The next open membership meeting will be on Tuesday, October 11 at 7:00 p.m. at Crabby Joe's. Note that this will be the last membership meeting for 2016. (The Board will meet starting at 6:00 pm and those interested are welcome to attend.)
